

CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION AND PARDON

QUICK REFERENCE FOR RESTORATION OF RIGHTS

In California, the granting of a Certificate of Rehabilitation or a Governor’s pardon restores to the applicant some rights of citizenship that were forfeited as a result of a conviction.

CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION	GOVERNOR’S PARDON
DOES: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Relieve some sex offenders, as specified, of further duty to register. (Pen. Code, § 290.5.)</li> <li>• Enhance a felon’s potential for licensing consideration by a State board. (Pen. Code, § 4853.)</li> <li>• Serve as an official document to demonstrate a felon’s rehabilitation, which could enhance employment possibilities.</li> <li>• Serve as an automatic application for a gubernatorial pardon.</li> </ul> DOES NOT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Erase the felony conviction or seal the criminal record. (Pen. Code, § 4852.17.)</li> <li>• Prevent the offense from being considered as a prior conviction if the person is later convicted of a new offense.</li> <li>• Allow a felon to answer on employment applications that he/she has no record of conviction.</li> <li>• Give a felon the right to vote, because this right is automatically restored after discharge from parole.</li> <li>• Restore the right to own or possess firearms.</li> </ul>	DOES: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Allow a felon to serve on a jury trial. (Code Civ. Proc., § 203 subd. (a)(5).)</li> <li>• Allow restoration of firearms rights, upon federal approval, to specified offenders who have obtained a certificate of rehabilitation if granted a full and unconditional pardon, unless the conviction was for a felony involving the use of a dangerous weapon. (Pen. Code, §4852.17.)</li> <li>• Allow a felon to be considered for appointment as a county probation officer or a state parole agent, but not to any other peace officer positions. (Gov. Code, § 1029, subd. (c).)</li> <li>• Allow specified sex offenders still required to register after obtaining a Certificate of Rehabilitation to be relieved of their duty to register if granted a full and unconditional pardon. (Pen. Code, § 290.5.)</li> </ul> DOES NOT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Seal or erase the record of conviction. (Pen. Code, § 4852.17.)</li> <li>• Prevent the pardoned offense from being considered as a prior conviction if the person is later convicted of a new offense.</li> <li>• Allow a pardoned person to answer on employment applications that he/she has no record of conviction.</li> <li>• Restore ability to own a firearm to felons convicted of any offense involving the use of a dangerous weapon. (Pen. Code, § 4854.)</li> <li>• Pardon convictions from another state, or federal convictions.</li> <li>• Necessarily prevent deportation.</li> </ul>