COURT MANAGER

DEFINITION

Under general direction, manages the daily operations of assigned court divisions and branch court sites; provides administrative direction and oversight for all functions and activities of assigned divisions and branch sites; plans, develops and implements procedures and policies that are in alignment with the strategic goals of the Court; and performs related duties, as assigned.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED

Receives general direction from the Assistant Court Executive Officer. Exercises general direction and supervision over Legal Process Supervisors.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is a management classification responsible for planning, organizing, reviewing, and evaluating the functionalities and activities of multiple document processing divisions and branch court sites. Successful performance of the work requires knowledge of public policy and court functions and activities; and the use of considerable independence, initiative, and discretion within established guidelines. The incumbent is accountable for accomplishing departmental and operational goals and objectives and for furthering Court goals and objectives. This class is distinguished from the Legal Process Supervisor in that the latter has first line supervisory responsibilities over an assigned group of clerical staff.
